

A Report on Faculty Development Programme

on

Project Proposals and Publications

by

Prof.N.Munuswamy, Ph.D,D.Sc, Department of Zoology, Univeristy of Madras, Chennai

On

03-06-2016

Without direct project funding the teachers would not be able to conduct any research project. Writing clear, thorough and targeted project proposals is very much essential to enhance their research skills. Mastering the art of proposal and writing requires a unified approach to project management. In this context delivering training sessions related to the process as well as the end product of project design.

Prof.N.Munuswamy, Ph.D,D.Sc, Department of Zoology, Univeristy of Madras, Chennai is well versed in providing information on project proposals and publications. He said that project proposal should be a detailed and directed manifestation of the project design.

The training sessions on project proposal writing aim to create an understanding of

- The role of project proposal and the activities related to each stage.
- How to deal with project and project proposals from an organisational perspective
- How to structure a new project.

In the afternoon session he explained about project writing proposal

1. Interview past and prospective beneficiaries
2. Review past project proposal
3. Review past project evaluation report
4. How to organise focus groups.
5. Checking of statistical data.
6. To Consult experts.
7. To Conduct surveys.
8. Prepare the final proposal

