

Department of Biochemistry

Name of the Event: Seminar on Hepatitis – “Viral Hepatitis and to influence real change”

Resource Person: Dr. Asha Parveen Sayyad,

Associate Professor,

Department of Community Medicine, Dr. Pinnamaneni
Siddhartha institute of Medical sciences and Research Foundation

Date: 28-7-2022

Number of students Participated: 82 students of II, III FMB

Brief Report:

Organized a Seminar on the eve of “World Hepatitis day” on 28th July, 2022 on “Viral Hepatitis and to influence real change” By Dr. Asha Parveen Sayyad, Associate Professor, Department of Community Medicine, Dr. Pinnamaneni Siddhartha institute of Medical sciences and Research Foundation, Resource person have explained about Hepatitis, How the liver processes nutrients, filters the blood, and fights against infections and how the liver is inflamed or damaged how the function can be affected in Heavy alcohol use, toxins, some medications, and in certain medical conditions causing hepatitis.

