

WORLD FISHERIES DAY

Date : 19-11-2021

No.of Participants: 110 students of II AZC, III AZC.

Brief Report: On the eve of “World Fisheries Day a Guest Lecture on “DIVERSIFICATION OF AQUACULTURE” is given by Sri. Puligadda Srinivasa Rao M.Sc. Senior Scientific Officer, Tilapia Project, Rajiv Gandhi Centre for Aquaculture, Ministry of Commerce & Industry, Govt. of India.

The Resource Person created awareness on the various employment opportunities in the field of Aquaculture and encouraged them to utilize the incentives and schemes provided by the Government .He also explained the training programs offered by the Central and State fisheries Institute and focused on the alternative species for culture and their importance as source of food and foreign exchange.

Interaction with the students

