

GUEST LECTURE ON “SURVIVAL OF TIGERS-OUR CONCERN”

Topic : GUEST LECTURE ON “SURVIVAL OF TIGERS OUR CONCERN ”

Date : 29-07-2022

Class : I BZC, II BZC, IAZC, II AZC students

Resource Person: Sri. A.V.S.R.K. APPANNA M.Sc., MPhil.

District Forest Officer, Krishna Division, Vijayawada Brief

Report : On the occasion of “INTERNATIONAL TIGER DAY”, Department of Zoology and Aquaculture Technology organized a guest lecture on “SURVIVAL OF TIGERS OUR CONCERN”. The Resource Person created awareness on the conservation of tigers and explained how our country had increased the count of tigers from previous years to till now. He also gave valuable information to students like – the total no.of tigers in the world are 4000 in which 75% are present in our country. And our country has occupied 5th place in conservation of tigers

RESOURCE PERSON ADDRESSING STUDENTS

