

FIELD VISIT TO SOLAR PLANT

III BSC PMC Students visited the solar plant at PVP Siddhartha institute of Technology on 20/11/2024. During the field visit students learnt about different types of solar panels and how the photovoltaic panel converts sunlight into electricity. The performance of solar panels , reduction of carbon emission and how the dc electricity produced by the solar power is converted into ac power are explained by the faculty members of the institution.

